Excerpt: .of the narrative, by telling us, that when they had gone throughout Phrygia and the region of Galatia, they assayed to go into Bithynia. The decree itself is directed to the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia; that is to churches already founded, and in which this question had been stirred. And I think the observation of the noble author of the Miscellanea Sacra is not only ingenious, but highly probable, viz. that there is, in this place, a dislocation of the text, and that the fourth and fifth verses of the sixteenth chapter ought to follow the last verse of the fifteenth, so as to make the entire passage run thus: And they went through Syria and Cilicia, (to the Christians of which country the decree was addressed) confirming the churches; and as they went through the cities, they...
