CRITTER GOLF III: THE STORM

Outskirts Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 140 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.6in. Critter Golf III: The Storm is the third book in a series of incredible adventure tales involving four best friends and all types of twists and turns. Thomas, the Great Horned Owl, tells the story while he attempts to keep up with the fun, friendship, triumphs and more than a few unfortunate mishaps. Jennifer, Sarah, Alex and Andy have built a friendship that keeps getting stronger all the time-and they will need one another's help more than ever. Sometimes it seems these buddies cannot manage to stay out of trouble. But honestly, most of the time this year it's really not their fault. Come and witness as nearly every emotion is reached in these spell-binding chapters. What would you do if the skies blackened? How would you deal with being tied up hundreds of feet off the ground? Can a critter escape from a hunter's trick box? Do you have fleas? Did someone say kirobees? Who is the mysterious yet enchanting woodcarver? Turn these pages and find answers to these questions and more. The episodes enclosed within the cover of this newest Critter Book are as unpredictable as they are wholesome stories of friendship. Come and follow the best friends' antics from the forest preserve and back onto the golf course. Find out if they are trapped in a predicament so big, so bold, so tough they will even reach out to a human for help. You'll see firsthand why Thomas can never stay perched high in his favorite oak tree for long. So often he must soar down swiftly to whisk his bushy pals away from the danger they have stumbled into. Remember, warmth and laughter are always a part of the outcome-eventually. Join the...
