The officials explained that information on whether an applicant had received a buyout may not be readily available to the hiring agency. For example, the information may be in the individuals official personnel folder, which the hiring agency may not receive for several weeks, or in a computer system that is located at the agency that paid the buyout. In addition, such certification would assist agencies that were hiring individuals who had received buyouts from other agencies, , such as those CPDF especially those agencies that do not participate in the in the judicial and legislative branches of government. For agencies OPM covered by 5 C. F. R. 7. 2, it is mandatory that they provide with CPDF personnel information for use in the, among other things, unless specifically exempted by statute. The need for hiring officials to readily know whether a job applicant is a...
