Original publisher: Portland, Or. : Northwest Power and Conservation Council, 2003 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)180194220 Subject: Power resources -- Northwest, Pacific. Excerpt: . . . proposal was not so much its substance, which was in many ways reflective of the recommendations of the Comprehensive Review, but the fact that such a wide spectrum of utility interests had coalesced around it. In a narrow sense, this proposal was the product of an effort to settle the publicly owned utilities legal challenge to the benefits to be provided to the residential and small farm customers of the IOUs that were part of the 2001 contracts. In a larger sense, however, this was a response to the frustrations and concerns all had experienced with Bonneville, and, in particular the aftermath of the 2000-2001 Western electricity crisis. 15 The objectives of the Joint Customers were stated as follows: 1. To create a common interest between Bonnevilles regional preference utility and investor-owned utility customers by allocating to such customers equitable, secure and long-term benefits of the federal power system. 2. To expose all Bonneville customers to the same risks and benefits of...
