Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Justice Perverted: I. the Address; II. the History; III. the Petition; IV. the Appeal To The Profession: - There is no order in the community more contemptible than that of those practitioners in the law, who, without one liberal principle of justice or equity, possess a skill in little else but quibbles, and in those points by which Chicanery is taught to proceed with impunity - Cunning enabled to elude the spirit by misrepresenting the letter - and Truth perplexed, obscured, and lost in the mazes of mystification. It is indeed surprising that many who call themselves men of honour, and who profess to have had a liberal education, should allow themselves, even in the practice of their profession, to assert palpable falsehood, to confound the clearest evidence, and defend, with all the appearance of sincere conviction, what they know to be altogether indefensible. It is not an admissible apology to assert that their profession requires such an abasement; for a similar justification might be offered by the sharper or the highwayman. There are, undoubtedly, certain laws of honour and truth established in the heart of every honest man, of which no regard for lucre or Jesuitical pretence of necessity can justify the infringement. There seems, indeed, to be a very unfortunate error, in many - among the students of the law - who value abilities and technical knowledge at a high rate, but entertain no great esteem for goodness of heart and integrity of conduct. While the world allows them abilities and knowledge, they depend, with security, on tergivisation and mal-administration. Indeed, we have had living examples to prove, that however bad the morals...
