An animated, pathetic, and highly patriotic address to the army, was then made by the Rev. Mr. Leonard, Chaplain to General Putnam's division, followed by prayer. The whole, says an eye-witness, was conducted with the utmost decency, good order and regularity, and to the universal acceptance of all present. And the Philistines on Bunkers Hill heard the shout of the Israelites, and being very fearful, paraded themselves in battle array. f As evidence of the cheerful spirit and good humor, which prevailed at this...
