S. military presence and the interests they protect. Our presence on the Korean Peninsula and our strong relationship with the ROK promote peace and stability in the region, which is an enduring interest of the United States and the world. Thank you for allowing me to appear before you today. I look forward to your questions. EVIN Chairman L. Thank you very much, Secretary Gregson. Secretary Campbell. STATEMENT OF HON. KURT M. CAMPBELL, ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE, EAST ASIA AND PACIFIC AFFAIRS AMPBELL Mr. C. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, and its an honor to testify before all of you gentlemen, and its also terrific to be with my colleagues and friends here on the panel before you today. Id like to submit my full testimony for the record and just sum-marize a few brief points for you as we get started here this morn-ing. Let me first fully support every word each of you said in your opening remarks this morning. I think it is well understood that the United States faces enormously consequential challenges in South Asia. Currently our young men and women are involved and engaged actively on challenges in Afghanistan, Iraq, and elsewhere. But it is also the case that increasingly the drama of the 21st cen-tury is playing out in the Asian Pacific region. The United States has to understand that for us to be successful as a Nation we have to be more actively engaged in every aspect...
