Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Granite Monthly, Vol. 43: A New Hampshire Magazine, Devoted to History, Biography, Literature and State Progress On the thirtieth day of November last, in the town of Chichester, came the end of a career, notable alike for length of days, earnest purpose, persistent effort and a high measure of success, judged by all ordinary standards. On that day Charles H.Carpenter, a native and life-long resident of the town, approaching the close of his ninety-second year, closed his earthly account and passed on to the higher life. For over half a century he had been a leading citizen of the town, prominent in county affairs, and known and esteemed in many circles throughout the state. The Carpenter name is one of the oldest and most honorable in English and American annals. It has been borne by those whose lives have been conspicuous in the history of our own and other states in many generations, and is traced back in the English archives to John Carpenter, who was a member of Parliament in 1323, and was...
